ABORIGINES' PROTECTION SOCIETY,

17, KING WILLIAM STREET, STRAND,

LONDON, W.C.

June 22nd 1877

My dear Mr. ~~Garrison~~ ~~Lindsay~~:

I should feel obliged if 134

you would kindly read the enclosed letter from Mr. Edward Wilson, a well known and justly esteemed Australian colonist. You will perceive that he suggests a special mode of dealing with Indian tribes, thinking, probably with good reason, that it would be far easier to induce them to engage in the cultivation and breeding of cattle

How to settle down to purely agricultural pursuits. As I am about to take steps to bring this suggestion before the american government I should feel greatly obliged to you if you would kindly express an opinion upon it in writing.

You can understand that you breakfast with the Anti Slavery Society on Tuesday morning. I have requested Mr. Sturge to send you further particulars. I expect that the breakfast will take place at the Cannon Street Hotel, which is only a short distance from Blackfriars Bridge.

Perhaps you would like to be able to remember the names of the principal people you met at my house last evening. I therefore jot them down:-

Mr. Fawcett
Professor & Mrs. P. Ames
Mr. Pennington M.P. and Mrs. P.
Miss Helen Taylor
Mr. A. Mr. Arthur M.P.
Sir C. J. Wingfield (late Governor of Oude)
Mr. R. Forsing. Ed. of Gentleman's magazine
Mr. & Mrs. Clayden (Daily News)
" Sergeant Parry.
" T. Hughes

Wm. C. R. Hopwood N.Y.

Mr. & Mrs Hertz

Dr. James Bryce, Professor of Civil Law, Oxford University

Mr. and Miss Shaen.

The Hon Dudley Campbell.

The misses Biggs (Mr. Ashurst's and Mr. Hansfield's nieces)

Mr. & Miss Justin Mc Carthy

Mr. and Mrs Percy Bunting.

These are the people you talked with.

Very faithfully Yrs.

W. L. Garrison
